Dear Ms. Santos,

This letter is in response to your request under the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA), assigned tracking number DON-Navy-2021-009675, dated August 18, 2021, for information pertaining to N4002720R0004, copies of awarded Task order with Statement of Work/Performance.

The following documents, are provided with redactions, pursuant to the following FOIA exemption, exemption (b)(6) of the Freedom of Information Act, 5 USC § 552, which protects personal information if released would result in a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy.

Per Navy policy, all fees have been waived.

You have the right to an appeal. It must be received within 90 calendar days from the date of this letter. Please provide a letter requesting an appeal, with a copy of your initial request and a copy of the letter of denial, in an envelope marked "Freedom of Information Act Appeal." You are encouraged (though not required) to provide an explanation why you believe the redactions were inappropriate or our search was inadequate.

There are two ways to file an appeal – through FOIA On-Line or by mail.

a. Through FOIA On-Line. This will work only if you set up an account on FOIA On-Line before you make the request that you would like to appeal. To set up an account, go to FOIA On-Line (this is the website that will appear at the top if you search the internet for "FOIA On-Line," click "Create Account" (a link located within the blue banner at the upper right hand corner), enter your data into the field that subsequently appears, and click "Save" (at the bottom of the screen). With your account thereby created, you will have the power to file an appeal on FOIA On-Line thereafter. To do so, locate your request (enter a keyword or the request tracking number in the "Search for" field on the "Search tab"), click on it, then the "Create Appeal" tab in the left-hand column. Complete the subsequent fields, click "Save," and FOIA On-Line will submit your appeal.
